

USE Vegetable Sicilian HALL'S HAIR RENEWER.

It is a medicinal preparation, and, at the same time, an elegant and cleanly toilet article. Its action upon the scalp is healthful. It nourishes the glands which support the hair, and causes this, dry hair to become thick, soft, and vigorous. It restores the color of youth to locks which have become faded with age or disease; and relieves and cures itching, caused by humors of the scalp. Dr. George Gray, Nashua, N. H., writes: "It gives me pleasure to testify to the wonderful effects produced by Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer, as observed by me in very many cases. IT WILL CERTAINLY RESTORE THE HAIR TO ITS ORIGINAL COLOR. It cures the head of dandruff, and leaves the hair soft, glossy, and beautiful." F. T. Sandhein, 1010 Spruce st., Philadelphia, Pa., writes: "After unavailingly trying a number of preparations to prevent my hair from falling out, and realizing that it was fast becoming bald, I tried, as a last resort, Hall's Hair Renewer. I have used only four bottles of the Renewer, and am perfectly satisfied that it is the best preparation in the market for checking the falling out of hair, invigorating the hair roots, and promoting a new growth."

A HORRIBLE HOLOCAUST.

EIGHT PERSONS CREMATED IN A CHICAGO TENEMENT.

The work of a President and Dastard Incendiary—Heroic Efforts of John Raleigh to Save his Family—Tragedy Through Windows—List of the Terrible Dead.

CHICAGO, June 8.—Eight persons were smothered or burned to death in the frame houses at 731 and 733 South Canal street. The names of the dead are as follows: Michael Murphy, aged forty years, employed by the South Division Railway company.

Mrs. Michael Murphy, aged about thirty-five years.

Annie Murphy, nine years old.

Katie Murphy, eleven years old.

Mrs. Mary Durkin, aged thirty years.

Patry Lavin, aged four years, son of Mrs. Mary Durkin by a former marriage.

John Durkin, three weeks old.

William Hank, aged fifty-eight years, a butcher.

The fire broke out in the cellar of 731 Canal street. The flames shot upward and quickly burned through the floor, which is on a level with the ground. Shooting upward the next floor was soon ablaze. The fire spread through the rooms, leaping from one to another. No. 731 was soon wrapped in the flames which enveloped the adjoining number.

Both houses were filled with smoke before any of the occupants were aroused.

Many of the sleepers were drowsy and smothered in their beds. It will probably never be known who awoke and tried to escape from the stifling smoke and scorching flames. The flames following rapidly after the smoke, burned the inanimate bodies till they were unrecognizable masses of black and charred bones and flesh.

The lower floor of 731 was occupied by John Raleigh, Jr. His wife was awakened by a sense of suffocation. She aroused her husband, who hastily donned a few articles of clothing. He threw up a window. The flames were scorching his face, singed his hair and mustache. Not hesitating a moment he caught his wife in his arms, and, with a terrible effort, threw her bodily through the frame of the window.

Her night dress caught on fire. With great precision of mind she extinguished the flames with her hands and tried to assist her husband in saving the lives of their two small children. The fire had gained additional headway. He was unable to put the children out of the same window. He then kicked on the wall to arouse the people on the second floor. Catching the babies in his arms he ran up stairs and jumped with them from a second story window.

The second floor of 733 was occupied by the Durkin and Murphy families. No member of either of these families escaped.

The fireman in searching the ruins of the houses, came upon the most harrowing scene. Some were lying in the street, their bodies, ghastly when awakened before death came upon them were clutched either in groups on the floor. They were all evidence of a terrible death before any effort could be made to rescue them.

The upper floor was occupied by William Hank, Jr. His father lived with him. They were aroused by the smoke. The young man caught up the children and jumped from the second story window with them. He was killed by the fall.

He wanted to help his father down, but the old man insisted on his jumping with the children. The aged and decrepit form of the old gentleman was seen at the window a moment and then disappeared, just as he was about to leap. The raging fire prevented the making of any further effort.

The fire was first seen by a watchman in a brewery near by. He started over to alarm the occupants. When in the rear of the burning houses he saw the flames and saw "There's a fire. You had better turn in an alarm." The man disappeared up the alley. The watchman insisted that the fire was about to break out. This is the third time the place has been set afire. No serious damage resulted from the former attempts.

BOLTS AND NUTS.

The Pennsylvania Works at Lebanon destroyed by fire.

LEBANON, Pa., June 8.—The Pennsylvania bolt and nut works, which consisted of a number of large buildings covering a large area, were destroyed by fire. The main building was a three-story structure, containing valuable machinery. The watchman, who was temporarily absent, returned to find the main building in flames. By the time that the two engine companies of the place had responded, the flames had spread over almost the entire works.

It was evident that nothing could be done except to save the surrounding dwellings and the works were left to their destruction. Nothing was saved from the burning buildings but a few of the bolts of the firm.

There was some difficulty with the hands a week ago, and as the origin of the fire is a mystery, it is probable that the same cause was the cause of the destruction. James Sprain, James Arnold and William O. Wolf, were badly injured by a falling wall. The loss will reach over $300,000, which was partially covered by insurance. The works were owned and operated by Lebanon and Lebanon capitalists, and will be rebuilt at once. A special train brought the Reading men of the firm here.

A HANSON RAPIST.

A Related Lady Assailed by a Chicago Cab Driver—Imprisoned.

CHICAGO, June 8.—Ada, the wife of C. C. Burling, living at No. 439 Wabash avenue, and employed by the Chicago Cattle Co. H. Lithgow on the open board of trade, was returning home from the North side, where she had been visiting friends, at 1 o'clock in the morning, being unable to catch a car at that hour, she started to walk down Wabash avenue. She had not gone far when William Snell, a hansom driver, drove up and asked her if she wanted a cab. She replied that she could not pay him until she reached home and awakened her husband. He told her it was all right, and she entered the cab.

When he had reached a point between Congress and Harrison streets, he stopped, entered the cab himself and assaulted Mrs. Burling. She screamed and a struggle ensued, during which she managed to break the window of her paragon. Being unable to jump upon the cab and drive away a man on a run, when the cab reached the corner of Folk street and Third avenue, a police officer heard her screams, leaping out into the street, stopped the cab. He brought Snell and Mrs. Burling into the armory.

Snell wanted to go, but the officer, for breaking the glass in the windows of his hansom. It was some time before the sobbing, frightened woman could tell the story of the prosecution. She did so, and it was willing to let the whole matter drop.

"Just let the whole thing go," he said.

But just as he was about to leave, he called the Lieutenant. Snell was booked with "attempting to commit rape."

Mrs. Burling is a pretty, well dressed woman of about twenty years of age. She was terribly shocked by the assault and her wrists were sorely rubbed by the hands of the hansom driver. She was taken to the police station, where she was held until she could be taken home.

FIENDISH SOCIALISTS.

Early, Bohemian Street, Helling with Bad Bug-Jane, Curren's Assailant.

New York, June 8.—Shortly after 1 o'clock last night, a party of five Bohemian Socialists who had intended to pirate at Adams' Wholesale park, crowded into Woodside depot of the Long Island railroad to take the train to Long Island city.

They were very noisy and boisterous, and wanted to fight. Ex-Alderman Murray, of Long Island City, was in the depot, and without any provocation, five of the Socialists assaulted him with slugs, and beat him about the head until he was insensible. Employees of the depot drove the Socialists out, and the fight became general. A dozen or more of the Socialists were badly cut. Detectives Maloney and Foley, of the railroad, arrested four of the pirates, who were taken to the Long Island City station.

Dr. Nelson sewed up large wounds in Adams' Wholesale park. The Socialists' paragon were found on the prisoners.

A Death Mystery.

New York, June 8.—Several detectives are said to be working upon the case of Frank R. Reed, the Yale divinity student whose body was recovered from the river some time ago with a bullet hole in the left temple. At first it was thought that he committed suicide, but it is now thought that he met his death in a fight with a dive along the river front while on a spree. His friends declared that Mr. Reed was not the sort of man to commit suicide. The case is being investigated with great interest in the trial of Holland, charged with the murder of confidence-man Dr. Devis, and he had declared his intention of trying to get the best of the Baltimore men in New York in a similar manner.

The train was stopped and the remains were taken to the hospital. The circus man was closed in a casket and taken to Chicago last evening. He has a wife in Chicago. She was telegraphed to yesterday morning. She was the wife of a husband at Terre Haute Tuesday morning.

VICTORIA, B. C., June 8.—A telegram from the mainland says that a down stage of the British Columbia Highwaymen, who were stopped on the Cariboo road by highwaymen who fired shots from a revolver and Wm. ### QUESTIONS OF PRIVILEGE.

REGARDING SLANDERS OF THE ILLUSTRIOUS DEAD.

Some Rise in Personal Privileges and Make Pretty Apologies for Misguided Wrongdoing, and Indulging in Stings and Arrows—Fish Day at Deer Park.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Mr. Kelley, of Pennsylvania, rising to a question of privilege, cited the rule under which the house meets Friday nights for consideration of pension bills. He found in the record of yesterday's speech filling twenty-five columns, delivered by Mr. Wheeler, on Edwin M. Stanton, when avowedly there was no pension business before the house.

The session, which had been set apart for specific purposes, were thus perverted to base ends—the slander of the illustrious dead who died from devoted services to their country.

Mr. Herbert, of Alabama, and that Mr. Wheeler was absent now, and thought it would be proper for Mr. Kelley to wait till his colleague should be present.

Mr. Kelley expressed his consent, and entered a motion to expunge the speech from the record, and that he would call that motion up to-morrow.

Mr. Henderson, of Iowa, also rose to a question of privilege and stated that in the report of the Wheeler speech, a remark made by himself had been misquoting, and he also would wait until to-morrow.

Mr. Crisp, of Georgia, rising to a personal privilege, said that on Saturday during debate in the house he had been betrayed into expressions regarding Mr. Holman, of Indiana, for whom he had expressed his regrets on the subject and his knowledge of no other way to do so than to give public expression of his regard for Mr. Holman and of what his own feelings were on the subject.

Mr. Holman also expressed a regret that he might have used any expression which could be construed into an insult to Mr. Crisp or unjust to the house.

Fish Day at Deer Park.

DEER PARK, N. Y.—To-day is fishing day for Deer Park. The presidential party started for Deer creek shortly after breakfast, which was partaken of at an early hour, and will spend the day out fishing. The probability now is that the party will leave here for Washington some time Wednesday. No definite arrangements to that end have yet been made, but the advisability of it is being seriously considered. Should it be decided to leave here on Wednesday, Col. and Mrs. Lamont will probably remain over and return with the bride and groom.

Mr. Manning.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Mr. Thomas J. Brennan, Secretary Manning's private secretary, received a telegram to-day, stating that the secretary here the journey to Hot Springs remarkably well, and suffered no fatigue from the trip which included a hard ride of twenty miles after leaving the train, and that his health continues to improve.

She stated that she intended to kill herself as her husband did not provide for her and her life was a hell on earth.

After swallowing the strychnine she told her father what she had done and that she had also given her five-year-old daughter a large portion of the poison. The dose to the child proved an emetic and thus its life was saved. A physician was sent for to her.

After swallowing the strychnine she told her father what she had done and that she had also given her five-year-old daughter a large portion of the poison. The dose to the child proved an emetic and thus its life was saved. A physician was sent for to her.

Mrs. Taylor refused to take an antidote, declaring she wished to die, and taking from her pocket a pistol, swallowed a half ounce of laudanum. She died this morning. Mrs. Taylor was twenty-two years old.

The visitors are investigating the workings of American railways, and are the guests of the New York Central and Michigan Central Railroad companies. They are much pleased with the courtesies shown them with what they have witnessed.

A CRANK SOCIALIST.

A Rip-roaring, Red-hot, Howling Anarchist Who Wants "His Share."

CHICAGO, June 8.—John A. Henry, the notorious crank Socialist, Anarchist, etc., is locked up at the Chicago House of Detention. Yesterday afternoon he boarded an incoming train at the Northwestern station, and plying up a cap and punch which the conductor had just sold him, he donned the cap and punch in hand he called out, "This way for Kight, Lockport and Freeport." Some of the officials wanted him to what he meant by such conduct. He shouted the reply: "It's none of your business. I am a Socialist and Anarchist. I have as much right to this cap and punch as any one else. I am a Communist and own my share of the world and have a right to it. You can't arrest me."

He was promptly arrested.

He was very noisy when he reached the station and kept it up throughout last night. At times he seemed to be a raving maniac. There is no doubt about his being weak-minded, his brain being turned through absorbing study of the delusive theories of Socialism. Whether his actual insanity was the result of a complete breakdown of his mind or it was merely a cunning scheme upon his part to convey the impression that he really is insane and to prevent his action in connection with the Anarchists, is uncertain.

The brutal travesty of the Anarchists generally has been broken by the indictment and almost absolute certain conviction of all of their leaders for murder, conspiracy and riot. The charge against Henry is for disorderly conduct although an inquest as to his insanity will now probably be made.

An attempt will be made to find out if the miners which has now lasted more than eleven months.

The office has remained vacant ever since he resigned it on taking the treasury portfolio.

Cottary Explosion.

WHEELING, June 8.—An explosion of gas occurred in the Mineral Spring colliery, operated by the Lehigh Valley Coal company this morning. In reply to the reporter's question regarding the matter, Mr. Stedwell said:

"It is true that the $15,000 drawn by the fifth of this ticket was paid to me, but I only acted as collector for others. The fortunate holders were five employees of the C. C. & I. R. Conant, brakeman, 187 Lorain street. The ticket was sent for and held by Johnson, and when the men learned of their good fortune, they came to me and asked me to take the ticket, attend to the collection of the money and make the proper division of it. I forwarded the ticket to New Orleans and it was promptly paid. Tuesday afternoon (the 26th), the men met at my house and I paid each of them $2,000.

It has all fallen into good hands and undoubtedly these men and their families will be greatly benefited by their good fortune. It was never my pleasure to see a happy man that group of good fellows at the table in this room as I handed each his portion of the money."
